

Beth Tfiloh Dahan Community School

August 2010

Dear Parents and Students of the Class of 2011:

One of the school policies adopted for members of the Senior Class is “Off Campus Lunch Privileges”, when they are allowed to leave school grounds during long lunches, usually scheduled for Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

Students who wish to take advantage of this privilege MUST SIGN OUT WHEN LEAVING SCHOOL AND SIGN IN UPON RETURNING. They are required to be in all classes on time. Further, at the discretion of the Administration, students may be denied this privilege at any time that they are not in good standing as citizens of the Beth Tfiloh student body.

If you wish to give permission for your child to leave school grounds during long lunches, please print, sign and return this form to the High School Office. This privilege is for seniors only, and does not include students at any other grade level.

Thank you for your support of our Senior Class.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Aaron Frank
Principal

Mrs. Deborah Rapoport
Assistant Principal

Mrs. Deborah L. Allen
Director of Student Life

I grant permission for my child, _____, to (please print)
leave school grounds during scheduled long lunches. I understand that Beth Tfiloh Dahan Community High School is not responsible for my child when he/she is exercising this special “Off Campus Lunch Privilege”.
